

The background is a collage of autumn-themed images. The top half features dense, vibrant red and orange leaves, likely from a Japanese maple, against a clear blue sky. The bottom half shows a traditional Chinese landscape with a tall, multi-tiered pagoda (Leifeng Pagoda) visible through the branches of trees. The overall color palette is dominated by warm autumn tones like red, orange, and yellow, contrasted with the blue of the sky and the green of some distant foliage.
